Pre-School and Elementary School

Animated visit

The Maeva Odyssey

Pre-School and Elementary School

Enter Captain Maeva's fantastical vessel. Along with his crew, discover the last message Maeva has left you. You are in charge of the mission, with its destiny in your hands. Will you have the courage to take over the controls?

Activity

Mini Extraterrestrials Take Over the Museum!

Pre-School

Put on some accessories to look like an extraterrestrial and follow the strange-looking guide. During a stop-over, leave your spaceship for a long intergalactic voyage across the Museum's exhibits...

Workshop

A Rocket in Orbit

Pre-School and Grade 1 and 2

What should you bring along in your rocket for an intergalactic journey? Build a rocket in which items float as if in zero gravity, and take it home as a souvenir of your outer space experience.

Odd Creatures

Elementary School - all Grades

Imagine a malformed, bizarre, futuristic beast that will be discovered at the ends of the earth in a few thousand years. Use clay and recycled materials to recreate a truly unusual creature!

Québec CRIMINALLY SPEAKING

Get acquainted with Québec's criminal history in the twentieth century and its impact on our society. Go behind famous criminal investigations and immerse yourself in the amazing world of forensics.

Activity

At the Scene of the Crime...

Grades 3 to 6

Learn about Québec's criminal history in the 20th century and put your detecting skills to the test in a criminal investigation led as part of our new exhibit, "Québec, Criminally Speaking". Discover the hidden side of forensics in Québec by taking part in several legal and medico-legal science experiments.

DISCOVERING LEGENDS

WITH JEAN-CLAUDE DUPONT

This exhibit on French North American legends will take you back to the stories that we carry in our collective consciousness. Works of art by ethnologist Jean-Claude Dupont and other objects on display will open up a fascinating world to young visitors.

A travelling exhibition from Musée Pointe-à-Callière

Animated visit

Discovering legends...

Grades 3 to 6

An animated interactive visit and a game will teach you about the various aspects of Canadian and Amerindian societies between the 17th and 19th centuries. You will play fantasy characters (elves, will-o-the-wisps, werewolves) or humans with mystical powers (priest, sorcerer, strong man). Along this extraordinary journey, you will also learn about traditional trades (blacksmith, yarn spinner, lumberjack), fly away on the chasse-galerie and see how you measure up to the Willow Bunch Giant!

Journey to the Great Beyond

Mortuary Practices in Québec

Learn about the evolution of mortuary practices in Québec from the time of New France until now. See how our ancestors prepared for death, how the thanatologist's trade has evolved, how people mourned in the past and the role of mourning in society. The visit ends on an imaginary note with tales and legends around the theme of death.

Animated visit

Journey to the Great Beyond

Grades 5 and 6

A funeral director from another era invites you to see how mortuary practices in Québec have evolved from the beginning of the colony until now. What is the Good Death Association? What does a thanatologist do? What does it mean "to mourn"? There's nothing morbid about this lively visit!

Workshop

Memory Box

Grades 5 and 6

In order to remember a person who has died, some people will keep objects that once belonged to the deceased. Did you know that hair was commonly used to remember someone? Come and learn how objects help remember loved ones, and their role in the grieving process. Make your own reliquary and personalize it as you like: To remember someone who was close to you? To protect objects that you cherish? To use as a jewellery box? The choice is yours!

VISIT EXPERIENCE
